13. Parking

The Executive Committee may reserve, allocate and mark certain car parking bays for the exclusive use of Committee members or such other persons as it considers appropriate.

Parking bays as allocated and marked are not to be used by other than the nominated person without the express permission of the executive Committee being previously obtained.

APPENDIX 2

STANDING ORDERS

1. Movers of motions shall be limited to ten minutes and all other speakers to the motion (including the right of reply) to five minutes; provided that such time limit may be extended by the Chairman with the consent of the meeting.

2. When a motion or amendment has been moved and seconded the next speaker should be in opposition to the motion and the debate continues with speakers for and against in that order in continuity until all the points of the motion have been discussed but the Chairman may vary this procedure.
3. A member shall be entitled to speak only once to each question but with the permission of the Chairman, may correct a mis-statement. Every amendment moved shall be treated as a new question. The mover only of any original motion shall have the right to reply.
4. The Chairman shall decide all points of order, but his decision may be reversed by a majority vote of the meeting.
5. No motion to dissent from the Chairman's ruling or decision shall be permitted unless made before any other business or speech has intervened, and no debate shall be allowed except by the mover (who shall be limited to five minutes) and the Chairman.
6. When the Chairman rises during a debate any member then speaking, or offering to speak, shall sit down, and the Chairman shall be heard without interruption.
7. It shall not be permissible to withdraw any motion that has been put from the chair, except with the consent of the meeting one dissentient voice being sufficient objection.
8. A speaker shall not be interrupted except on a point of order.
9. A Chairman may discuss a motion or an amendment at his discretion provided that it is before the final reply by the mover.
10. Where a previously negatived motion or a motion to alter or rescind a motion has been negatived, no similar motion shall be brought forward within three months thereafter; and the effect of this provision shall not be evaded by substituting any motion differently worded, but in principle the same.

11. Discussion shall not be permitted upon any motion for an adjournment of the meeting. If upon the question being put and negatived, the subject then under consideration or next on the business paper shall be discussed, and it shall not be competent for any member to again move for an adjournment of the meeting until half an hour has elapsed from the time of moving the one that has been negatived.
12. All correspondence and reports shall be taken as received immediately upon being read, unless a motion to the contrary be tabled.
13. At all General Meetings and Executive Committee Meetings, the President or Chairman shall have a vote as an ordinary member and in case of equality of votes a second or casting vote.
14. Any discussion may be closed by a resolution that "the question be now put" be it moved seconded and carried by a two-thirds majority. Such resolution shall be put to the vote without debate. No speaker shall be interrupted for the purpose of moving the closure.
15. When a motion is moved, seconded and carried that "the meeting proceed to the next business", the question under discussion shall be considered as dropped.
16. When an amendment is made upon any motion, no second amendment shall be accepted until the first amendment has been disposed of, but notice of a further amendment may be given. If an amendment is carried it shall be put as a substantive motion, upon which a further amendment may be moved. If an amendment is negated a further amendment may be moved upon the original question, but only one amendment shall be submitted at a time.

17. Should a member be absent from a meeting at which he is to bring forward a motion of which he has given notice, he shall inform the Secretary of his inability to attend and he may nominate in writing a member eligible to vote, to act for him, otherwise the question shall lapse.
